

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1890.

NO. 42

Letter from Casey.

—Mr. K. L. Tanner's horse near Liberty burned on the 18th inst. loss not ascertained. Mr. Drye Jeffries' horse near Gilpin burned Sunday and all his household furniture in it, which his family were at church. As Mr. Jeffries was in very limited circumstances, the loss is seriously felt, but his neighbors have a subscription paper going the rounds and people are contributing freely.

—Mr. James Bell, living near Hannville, met with a very unfortunate accident at Canfield's Mill, 3 miles from Gilpin, last Friday. While handling logs on a steep incline, one caught him and crashed his body, breaking four of his ribs. It was at first thought by the attending physician that there were no chances for him, but at last accounts he was doing very well and there is some prospect of his recovery.

—In addition to the many startling incidents and casualties that Casey county at all times subjected to, she has natural curiosities that are attractive to the general public. From Mr. John Haddock, whose veracity is unquestionable, we learn that there is a very remarkable spring, called the "Flowing Spring," on the lands of Mr. Robert Henson, on the South Fork creek, 1 mile from the Trace Fork place. It derives its name from the continual noise it makes from escaping gas, or something else, and this gas can be ignited with a match and makes a blue blaze. The water that issues from it is black and greasy looking and is not sweet to the taste. While it has been known as a blowing spring for years, it has not been known that the gas connected with it would burn, for only about 12 months. The writer intends to visit the wonder as soon as convenient.

—Sunday, on our return from Mt. Salem to this place, we called on Mr. H. H. McAninch at Mt. Lebanon, and found him still suffering much from injuries received in his terrible experience in rescuing his horses and mules from his burning barn Tuesday night. It was at first thought that from the effects of inhaling so much heat and smoke that his condition was dangerous, if not critical, but his recovery now is pretty well assured. When he first discovered his barn to be on fire he alarmed his family and hired hands and made speedy exertions to save his horses. He had opened the stalls and let out the last mule in his division of the barn, and when endeavoring to return the smoke descended and became so dense that he was blinded, and by some means the door which he had entered was shut and he passed it. By this time he was almost suffocated, but was able to let John Lucas, a colored hired hand, know his situation, who, wrapping a quilt around himself, rushed through flame and smoke and brought him out. Great honor is due Lucas, as dusky as his complexion is, for his noble efforts in risking his life in saving the life of his employer, also in saving three horses. The loss was $2,000, with insurance for $500. The fire was evidently the work of an insect. It is difficult to reconcile the belief that any one should be so foolish as to apply the insectary torch at the midnight hour to the property of such a man as Mr. McAninch. The writer has known him in the long years ago when he was a struggling man, before fortune smiled upon him, and always found him to be the same hospitable neighbor, free hearted and generous, a friend and helper to all conditions and complexions. Much sympathy is being manifested for Mr. M. and it is hoped he will get a clew to the secret and bring them to speedy justice.

REMARKABLE EVIDENCE.—Mrs. Blattner, an aged widow, living in the suburbs of Frankfort-on-the-Main, Prussia, was murdered early in May. A traveling tinker by the name of Newbrad was arrested and charged with the crime, but as the evidence against him was wholly circumstantial, the case was dropped. Now comes the strange part of the story. Her relatives are very rich and offered an immense reward for the conviction of the murderer. Hearing of this a Munich lawyer named Eberhardt had the remains of the old woman disinterred, the eye taken out and a photograph of the retina made. The picture of the old woman's last sight on earth was strikingly clear. It was a picture of Newbrad holding a dagger in one hand and a hatchet in the other. He has gone to see as a sailor, but will be arrested and tried for the crime.—St. Louis Republic.

VanDerbilt's check for 700,000 pounds, for some time the largest ever drawn, has been overshadowed by a check of 1,250,000 pounds, drawn by the Indian & Peninsular Railroad Co. on the London and County Bank of London. The big check has just passed through the clearing house, where it was an object of curious interest.

"Now pray for Susie Bates," said Mrs. Simeral to 5-year-old Flossie, who was saying her prayers, "Susie is quite sick." "Why, mamma," said Flossie, "I can't pray for her. She doesn't belong to our crowd."

The Hustonville Fair.

The very fact that there was going to be a fair at Hustonville was an assurance that it would be a grand thing socially speaking and for a number of days prior to the date of commencement the prettiest girls from over the country began to arrive for the event. From a financial standpoint it was also an assured fact and not a stockholder wanted to sell his share even at a little above par. To see a good display of stock and to see an association managed as it should be, the fair gave found it only necessary to go to our sister town in the West End and there he could be accommodated with all he wished. With all these advantages, of course the word "failure" was not thought of and on Tuesday morning when the first bell tapped as an announcement that the fair had begun, a good crowd saw the opening ring. On the afternoon the large amphitheatres were filled and "a big first day" was the expression that a number of the directors gave vent to. On Wednesday morning a gentle rain fell for several hours and that had the effect of keeping a goodly number from enjoying the entire festivities of the second day, and it was not until noon that the crowd had congregated. Thursday the weather was showery, but the fair grounds looked a moving mass of beings as they wandered to and fro, getting a view of the many things to be seen and regretting what was down in their hearts that that was the last day of the Hustonville Fair.

In the following list of premiums and awards it will be understood that the first named person gets the premium and the second the certificate. If but one is named he gets both premium and certificate. We also leave out the word "best" as it is understood, of course, that the best wins in every case.

Our report had to close here in order to get the 1st to its thousands of readers on time.

The efficient secretary, Mr. J. B. Cook, put us under renewed obligations for various courtesies.

World's Band, from Louisville, furnished the music, which was considered very good.

Those who did not have dinner on the grounds had literally put the "big pot in the little one" at home, and hundreds of visitors were entertained at those hospitable households.

Jerry Briscoe got the Interior John S. McAlfee and W. B. Burke took the certificate on the "best mule any age."

J. P. Goode played the role of ringmaster and did it creditably. He has not got a stentorian voice, but he got there all the same.

Hustonville did more than ever to sustain her reputation for hospitality, while her young ladies put aside all question as to where the greatest amount of beauty per foot can be found.

The fair was a thing of beauty and a joy till the wee sma' hours. Although the management saw fit to deprive the young people of the hall at the 11th hour, the young men were not out-witted and secured the Weatherford Hotel dining room, where the scene of merriment was uninterfered with except by perhaps excessive pleasure. It was a delightful hop, such as Hustonville has the reputation of giving, and just such an entertainment that causes the minds of the youthful to turn to thoughts of love.

Our representative had scores of invitations to dine, "sup" and accept other hospitalities, which he acknowledges with many thanks.

The crowd of ladies who attended the fair each day would compare favorably in beauty with any collection of the fair sex that have congregated for years. Hustonville beauty showed even plainer and to better advantage than even it generally does, which is saying a great deal.

President Givens bore the honors with becoming dignity.

Thursday was a big day and everybody had a big time.

Some of the rings were literally filled with contestants and all good stock. The Hustonville Fair, the fifth of the series, was a grand success, although rain came down in torrents a great portion of the time.

WAYNESBURG.

—W. B. Goode, of McKinney was here the first of the week.

—The berry season is nearly over. Berries are the only kind of fruit we will have much of this year.

—Layton & Smith are doing a big business in berries. They will soon have all the poultry shipped out of the neighborhood.

—Old Uncle Francis Dishon, Mrs. Thomas D. Gooch and a little child of W. H. Singleton were all buried last week and an infant of Hamley Singleton died the 21st.

—About 50 men went from this community to Cincinnati to take the places of the strikers, but most of them have returned and it was reported here that the freight depot was blown to pieces Monday night, but not believed.

—Several of J. M. Goode's family have been down with typhoid fever, but are convalescing now. Craig and Walton, the two oldest, came very near dying. D. S. Clammich has been very low with the same disease. There is more fever in the community than was ever known before.

—Judge Varnon, Sam Owsley and Frank McClary made speeches here last Saturday to a small crowd. Varnon's opponent is not making any canvass and will not as long as he is treated with due respect by Judge Varnon and his friends, nor as long as they conduct their canvass on gentlemanly principles.

The whole Gooch family have been supporting Judge Varnon for office for about 25 years and I yet it is urged that this is not equal to his. Varnon's support one time.

GREEN-BRIAR AND DRIPPING SPRINGS.

Knowing it would be impossible for me to give accommodations to a club of hunters who desire to come to my place in August, I today compromised the matter by leasing them the entire Old Dripping Springs, 30 rooms, for the month of August. This club is composed of noted fox hunters and their families, including the noted Jack Chinn and his famous pack of hounds, Ed and Steve Walker, John Parks, John Bennett, Dr. Ramsey, the Humes, Enders and many others. They are looking their hounds with them which will make a pack of fully 200. The fox dens are in the cliffs under and around the Hotel Katydid, at Green Briar and the link of their hunting will be around that place, so you may expect other noise beside on regular band during the month of August.

We now have room for 45 or 50 guests. Respect, D. G. S. VIGGIER.

Democratic Convention.

In compliance with a call of the district committee the democrats of Hancock county are requested to meet at the court-house in Stanford, Thursday, July 31, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the district convention to be held at Lawrenceburg Aug. 7, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress in this, the Eighth district.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Superior Judge, JOSEPH BARBOUR.
 " Appellate Clerk, W. W. LONGMOOR.
 " Delegate to Constitutional Convention, W. H. MILLER.
 " County Judge, THOMAS W. VARNON.
 " County Attorney, JOSEPH B. PANTON.
 " County Clerk, GEORGE B. COOPER.
 " Sheriff, J. N. MENEFFEE.
 " Jailor, SAMUEL M. OWENS.
 " Assessor, E. D. KENNEDY.
 " Sup't of Common Schools, W. F. MCCLARY.
 " Surveyor, HARRY A. EVANS.
 " Coroner, ARCH CARSON.

THE democracy of Lincoln has never presented a better, cleaner and more deserving ticket for county officers than the one which it now calls upon the people to endorse. There is not a scrub in the entry. They are thorough-breds and as certain to come under the string first on election day as the sun shines, if those whom they have a right to depend on will do their duty.

For county judge, Thomas W. Varnon was selected to succeed himself. He has filled the office for five years with ability and conscientiousness. It takes a lawyer and a good one to discharge the duties of county judge properly and Judge Varnon's long practice at the bar has enabled him to meet satisfactorily every question of law that has presented itself. The only objection that even the prohibitionists were would prove no objection if they were to investigate the law with regard to issuing licenses to drug stores. He simply did his duty and construed the law as he found it. If he was in error, the question could have very easily been settled by a test case before the court of appeals, but the average prohibitionist is not manly enough for that kind of fight. They prefer to rebuke Judge Varnon by nominating a man against him, even when they know he has not a shadow of a chance to be elected. It therefore becomes the duty of the democrats of Lincoln county to rebuke this rebuke and elect Judge Varnon by a majority that will attest their confidence in him. The term will perhaps wind up his official and political life. Let it be with the placid "Well done thou good and faithful servant," ringing in his ears and guiding him on to even greater efforts for the public good.

For county attorney, Mr. J. B. Paxton was given the nomination without opposition and will no doubt be elected in the same manner. He is thoroughly capable, ambitious, studious, honest and sober, qualities necessary to the faithful performance of the duties that will devolve upon him, and which commend themselves to every honest voter.

George B. Cooper, having proven his fitness for the office of county clerk, was given a clear track for the nomination for a second term and the democracy should see to it that he is endorsed at the polls in a manner that will show to this worthy, clever, polite and accommodating young officer that his course has been eminently satisfactory and the conduct of his office without reproach. He is among those singled out by the so-called third party for the wreaking of its vengeance, but why it is we have never heard explained. The democracy must explain at the polls, in no uncertain way, on the first Monday in August that it takes no stock in the measly attempt to defeat one of whom it has every reason to be proud.

Our nominee for sheriff is John N. Meneffee, a good man in every respect. The scrupulous manner in which he conducted the office for two terms before is an earnest of what may be expected of him in the future. He made one of the best sheriffs that the county ever had and he is going to do it again.

Samuel M. Owens is another of our candidates that the prohibitionists want to defeat, purely to gratify a spite and not for the public good. He has made a capital jailer, has been heartily endorsed by his party and it now remains for the democrats to elect him, as they are determined to do. The jail has been well kept since he took charge and his other duties have been performed cheerfully and well. Mr. Owens deserves and will doubtless receive the same hearty endorsement at the general as he did at the primary election.

For assessor the democracy presents the name of E. D. Kennedy and refers to the way he has discharged the duties of the office as proof of his fitness, honesty and integrity. There are few more deserving men than Ed Kennedy and the democracy delights to honor such a man.

For superintendent of common schools, W. F. McClary is both worthy and well qualified. He cheerfully withdrew from the race for the unexpired term of Mr. Bagle, thereby demonstrating his gallantry and fairness and the democracy as cordially nominated him for the full term which begins in September. He has spent most of his mature years in the school room and is fully alive to the importance of educating the masses. He has served his party well and it now has a chance to requite that service in a handsome manner by endorsing in a decided majority the nomination, which was given him without contest.

Harry A. Evans, a graduate in civil engineering, is the nominee for surveyor. He is an excellent young man and understands the business of surveying in all its branches. He will have no opposition, of course, but every voter should see that his name is on his ticket.

The office of coroner will never prove a profitable one in this county we hope, but such an office is necessary and Judge Arch Carson has been chosen by the party to fill it. He can do so as well as the next man, besides his election will be a compliment to a life-long democrat and a clever man.

Of our nominee for delegate to the constitutional convention, W. H. Miller, it is unnecessary to say more than that his election will insure the county a good representative in the body, which will be called on to make our constitutional law. He has won the nomination without opposition in his own party, the republicans will not oppose him and he has practically no opposition from any other quarter. Confident that he will be elected, he has given the subject of our fundamental law a very close study and if he succeeds in making the reforms suggested in his late speech he will prove a most valuable member.

These, fellow citizens, are the gentlemen the democracy asks you to support and it does so with the confidence that it has presented a ticket worthy of your warmest approval. We want to elect it by an overwhelming majority and will do so if every democrat will do his duty. Do not take it for granted that our men will be elected anyway. Over-confidence has lost many a fight. The only sure way to put the seal of condemnation on third-party men, bolters and hybrid, hot-air tickets is to go to the polls and vote and work for the men whose names head this article. Lincoln county must not be turned over to fanatics and impracticables, and it will not be if every democrat is true to his party and himself.

The House rejected the Senate original package bill, and substituted the following, which it passed by a vote of 175 to 38: "Whenever an article of commerce is imported into any State from any other State, Territory or foreign nation, and there held or offered for sale, it shall be subject to the laws of that State, provided that no discrimination shall be made by any State in favor of the citizens of that State against the citizens of any other State; nor shall transportation of commerce through any State be obstructed except in the necessary enforcement of the health laws of that State." The bill is not what the prohibitionists wanted or what the whiskey men desired, but it ought to satisfy any reasonable man or set of men.

DEMOCRATS should observe the call for a county convention here next Thursday, 31st, to nominate delegates to the Lawrenceburg convention, which will nominate a candidate for Congress in this district. Of course Gov. McCreary will be nominated, but it should be done in a manner befitting his distinguished services and in keeping with the dignity of the office he has filled so worthily. Let us have a rousing convention and send representative men to assist in making Gov. McCreary our standard bearer again. He has carried the democratic flag through many a battle to glorious victory and will continue to do so whenever it is given into his keeping.

JUDGE LILLY writes to Gov. Buckner that he will not be able to hold his court in Perry at the appointed time and that he need not send the soldiers yet. The fact of the business is Judge Lilly is too worthless and cowardly to hold his court at any time and it is a waste of time and money to send the troops to protect him. The last legislature deserves to be eternally condemned for not impeaching this disgrace to the bench or devising some means by which a judge with some backbone could be sent to bring order out of chaos and restore law and order in that crime-ridden district.

SENATOR JOHN K. HENDRICKS, chairman of the Senate judiciary committee, tells the Paducah Standard that he never heard of the libel bill, which the Kentucky Press Association wanted passed by the last legislature, or he would have entered earnestly into the matter, which he thinks requires legislation. The explanation is, of course, satisfactory, but we should like to hear from the committee of editors appointed to present the bill.

THE Southern people are beginning to realize what will be the effects of the infamous election bill and meetings are being held in many cities to protest against its becoming a law. The republicans will be the losers by the measure in the long-run. It will make the solid South more solid by driving even the decent republicans from their ranks.

THE republicans continue to manufacture offices to be filled by their benchmen. A bill to create the office of 4th assistant post-master general, at a salary of $4,000, was favorably reported from the House committee on post-offices Tuesday.

THERE is no sulking in the camp of Capt. James B. Martin, of Barren county. He and his followers are heart and soul for Longmoor, as every democrat ought to be and is, if he is of the right stripe.

There is no time for democrats to falter.

We are indebted to the author, Mr. J. H. Grimes, late of Harrodsburg, but now editor of the Big Stone Gap Herald, for a copy of "Grimes' Manual for U. S. Gaugers and Storekeepers," which is said by those who are judges to be the best and most useful work of the kind ever issued. It is a very neat little volume and can be had for $1.25 from Mrs. Annie Q. Grimes, Harrodsburg.

GEN. LANDRUM is sending letters to the leaders of his party telling them that Tinsley is running to win and will win if the republicans are quietly organized. In other words the general advises a still-hunt. But we are onto you, general. Tinsley will hardly confess that he was in the race after Longmoor gets thro' with him.

NEWS CONDENSED

—The G. A. R. rates to Boston from Louisville have already come down to $17.

—John Harris, who weighed between 600 and 700 pounds, died at Tuscola, Ill., aged 70.

—The Kansas State Temperance League denounced the supreme court for its original package decision.

—The republicans of Fayette county Tuesday decided that it is inadvisable to put a county ticket in the field.

—Wisconsin prohibitionists have put a null State ticket in the field, headed by Dr. Alexander, of Eau Claire, for Governor.

—An accident on the Rock Island road, near Limon, Col., killed the engineer and wounded a dozen passengers more or less severely.

—Ex-Gov. Smith and other republicans of Alabama, have called a mass meeting at Birmingham to protest against the passage of the Force bill by Congress.

—The Atlanta Constitution urges a boycott on Northern industries if the Federal election bill becomes a law. That's the way to bring the marplots to their senses.

—C. M. Chestnut, a well known Corbin merchant and cross tie man, was run over and killed by a train near London. He fell out of the caboose and was literally cut in two.

—Gov. Warren has issued a proclamation calling the first Wyoming election for Sept. 11. The democratic and republican State conventions are called for Aug. 11 in Cheyenne.

—Mrs. Page, of Inglesoll, Texas, gave birth to four children the other day that weighed respectively 6, 5, 4 and 4 pounds. She had previously presented her husband with three pairs of twins.

—President Harrison has discharged his colored coachman and has put a "blasted Englishman" in his place. Evidently the great man doesn't think the negro good enough even for that menial job.

—The people of Collinsville, Ga., a local option town, blew up the establishment of an "original package" dealer with dynamite and threatened that if he opened again he would be blown up with his bottles the next time.

—The impression steadily grows that the United States Senate will not adopt any rule limiting debate and that the Force bill cannot carry on a square vote. The Senate is not in favor of Mr. Reed or his methods.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

—The Richmond Climax reports the deaths of Miss Lillie Cosby, daughter of Ed Cosby, aged 20, and Tiberius Bell Ballard, aged 70. The latter was a brother of P. P. Ballard and the last of 12 children save him and Mrs. J. K. Harris.

—A cloud-burst on the Union Pacific road, north of Denver, Monday night, demolished the two bridges at the forks of Clear Creek canyon and destroyed all the bridges in the vicinity. The railroad as far down as Golden was washed away.

—John Christy's four story tenement house on Front street, Cincinnati, was burned and four people are known to have perished in the flames, while two others received fatal injuries. There were 30 persons in the building and of these several are still missing.

—The city council of Chicago has agreed to create a site for a portion of the World's Fair on the lake front. It is proposed to spend $2,000,000 in making the ground by filling in the lake. The area to be thus secured is to be used as a public park after the exhibition.

—This week the Canadian Pacific railway completes the arrangement made some time ago for the purchase of the entire New Brunswick railway and thereby connect ocean to ocean by its own iron. The New Brunswick system comprises nearly 500 miles of road.

—The trunk of a rose bush in Ventura, Cal., is said to be three feet in circumference, and the first branch it throws out is 24 inches in circumference. It runs over a lattice work, and since trimming, covers a space of 1,200 square feet. It yields thousands of flowers.

—Major Matt Adams has many warm personal and political friends in this county, but if a single one of them will vote against Mr. Longmoor because he beat the major, we have not heard of him. Nicholas will give the brave, one-legged soldier her usual 500 majority.—Carlisle Mercury.

—A cloud burst in the foot hills of Santa Rita mountains in Arizona, covered an area of a square mile and rushed down the canyons in torrents, drowning cattle, horses and wild animals. No human lives were lost, but the Schofield ranche was devastated and a freight train was carried a mile by the current.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Dr. R. C. Morgan will return home tomorrow.

Miss Lillian Buchanan is the guest of Mrs. Smith Hamilton.

Miss Anna B. B. is visiting Misses Lizzie and Mary Bright.

Miss Edith Adams, of Bryansville, is the guest of Miss Bessie Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Crow have gone to Russell Springs to spend a few weeks.

Misses T. R. Warren and W. G. McKinney will go to "Green Brier" today.

Miss Jennie B. B. of Danville, is visiting Miss Laura Jones, near Maywood.

Miss Alpha Stewart, of Bloomington, Ill., has been the guest of the Misses Wray.

Miss A. R. Penny and Mr. George Penny were both somewhat better yesterday.

Miss Ellen B. B. who spent the spring in Abingdon, Va., is with her sister, Mrs. S. M. Owens.

Mr. Will Monahan, operator at Hazel Patch, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Spoonmonie, at Hazel Patch.

Miss Ellen B. B. left yesterday for Chillicothe, O., to visit Miss Lizzie Spill, one of her conservatory friends.

W. H. Miller has been confined to his bed with malaria nearly ever since court day, but was better yesterday.

Miss Lottie Dillard came down from Crab Orchard yesterday to stay awhile with her sister, Mrs. W. M. O'Brien.

Mr. Frank E. B. and his wife and daughter, Bessie, and Miss Bessie Evans are spending a week at Crab Orchard Springs.

Mr. S. M. W. of Louisville, is here with old friends on his return from Monticello, where his wife is spending the summer.

Mr. W. F. McChary is down with the malaria fever and unable to mingle with the voters as he had hoped. His friends will not, however, let his cause suffer on that account.

Mr. D. G. Stauffer was in our office Wednesday ordering job work. He is the busiest man in the county and is making a grand success of his new Green River Springs.

Mr. J. S. Higgins came down from Rock Castle Springs yesterday. He says a fine crowd is enjoying the delights of the place and that a crowded house for August is assured.

It is reminding for a subscription, Miss Emma Larrard, of Manchester, conveys the cheerful information that land is on big boom in Clay county, selling in some instances as high as $100 an acre.

A letter from Mrs. Bainsale at Cumberland Falls conveys the sad intelligence that Mayor E. H. Bainsale is a great deal worse and his family are very despondent about the result of his illness.

M. C. Miller, Jr., of Austin, Texas, was here Tuesday shaking hands with the host of friends he made during the time he lived in Stanford.

He is in the banking business in the Lone Star State and are glad to know his success.

Mr. Eugene Hubbard, son of Prof. Hubbard, of the College, left Wednesday for West Tennessee, where he will visit an aunt for a month and then go to St. Louis to attend a business college. He is a moral and studious boy and is determined to make a man of himself.

CITY AND VICINITY.

It is settling time and I want what you owe me. Take this to yourself. W. B. McRoberts.

LEAHIE LEE, a 4-month-old child of Mr. O. P. Huffman, died Wednesday of whooping-cough.

There is one thing certain. The Interior Journal is going to have a regular correspondent at Hustonville if it has to send a member of its staff to do the work. We want to hear twice a week from our beloved and hospitable little neighbor and we are going to do so and don't you forget it.

Shut.—Agnes Jones, a colored court-san, was shot in the face by Tom Marshall, a Danville negro, Wednesday. It is claimed that the shot was accidental, but there are rumors that there was a general row in the delectable quarter of Marksville when it was fired. The ball is still in the woman's cheek and her face is permanently disfigured.

Politics makes strange bed-fellows. Our friend, Ezra Gooch, is now consorting with the very crowd that was hottest against him in 1879 and forgetting the friends that stood by him in the days that he most needed them. We are sure if he followed the advice of the best men in his neighborhood or consulted his own conscience in the matter, he would get refuse to be made a cat's paw of by the clique who has persuaded him to oppose Judge Varnon purely to gratify a spite.

A beautiful line of Chamber sets, Trunks and valises just received at A. A. Warren's Model Grocery.

I must gain more than I owe me to come forward and settle. I need money and I must have it. H. C. Bapley.

HIGHLAND.—Walter E. Varnon will address the good people of Highland in the interest of the democratic ticket at 2 P. M., Saturday.

The Garrard Fair begins this morning, with premiums aggregating $1,800. It is going to be a big show and everybody should make it a point to go.

Capt. Thomas Hutchinson, of the Kentucky Union, who is on a visit to his mother, invested $200 in a couple of 25-foot front lots in Col. Huff Dillard's addition to Rowland.

Liberty.—Hon. R. C. Warren will speak at Liberty Monday for the democratic ticket, state and county. The mere announcement is sufficient to draw a crowd in that county, where Mr. Warren is so deservedly popular.

Mr. John H. Miller entertained his old friend and army comrade, W. W. Longmire, Esq., candidate for appellate clerk, at his home Wednesday evening, and a thoroughly enjoyable time was spent discussing war experiences and a first-rate supper. Among those present were Col. T. P. Hill, Hon. R. C. Warren, Wm. Beck, Sam T. Harris and Dan Miller.

Stratton.—Col. John B. Castleman, Chairman of the State Central Committee, notified our county chairman, Mr. T. D. Newland, that Hon. P. Watt Hardin, attorney-general, will speak here at 10:30 to-morrow, 26th, for the democratic ticket. Gen. Hardin is a fine speaker and never fails to fire the democratic heart. Turn out and hear him. It will do you good.

Our friend, James T. Hackley, has concluded to mount the raging stump and tell the people what kind of a constitution the prohibitionists want and what kind he will make, if they elect him as delegate from this county. Accordingly he asks us to announce that he will speak at Crab Orchard at 2 o'clock next Saturday, 26th, at Hazle on the 28th at 7 P. M., and at Mt. Neala on the 29th at the same hour. He also requests his democratic opponent to be present and divide time with him.

Rowland was enlivened a few evenings ago by a fight between Jim Hotel and Ed Dillard. It seems that the young man loved the same girl and to get the better of his rival, Hotel reported that Dillard was drunk on a certain occasion. They met in Ferrill's bar-room and Dillard asked Hotel about it. A quarrel ensued and upon the latter applying an opprobrious epithet to Dillard he seized a beer glass and got in six licks on Hotel's head, cutting him severely. Judge Shelton fined each $5 and costs.

The democratic candidate for appellate clerk, Mr. W. W. Longmire, of Harrison county, attended the Hustonville Fair and met many of the leading democrats. On all of them he made the most favorable impression and Harrison county may be counted on to give him at least the usual majority. No man can look at him and think of the heroism that has marked career and see the maimed and crippled condition in which he has had to fight the battle of life, and not have his bosom swell with admiration for such a man. He is every inch a hero and the democratic soldiers of both armies will delight to do him honor. Today he will visit the Garrard Fair and meet the boys who are going to do him proud on election day.

Reception.—About 25 couples responded to the invitations sent out by Miss Mattie Vandever to meet her friends, Misses Tanner, of McKinney, and Richardson, of Somerset, Wednesday evening, and just that number were delightfully entertained by Miss Vandever, who knows so well how to do such things. Preparations had been made to illuminate the yards with Chinese lanterns, so that moonlight tete-a-tetes could be indulged in, but the dampness of the weather prevented and the happy young people spent the time equally as pleasantly in doors. Conversing, cards and music was the programme and exceedingly enjoyable was it carried out. At the proper time a magnificent lunch was spread and it was bordering on another day before the guests took their reluctant departure.

A Most Delightful Evening.—Mr. Sam Menefee hands us the following: On the evening of the 23d the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Warren was thrown open to a few of the many friends of their son, Geo. B. Although the rain was pouring down, the house was gay with young people and their happy talk and merry laughter showed that they were enjoying the hospitality of their kind entertainers. It is needless to say that the young ladies present were Stanford's prettiest, and the gentlemen were, as usual, polite and gallant. At 10 o'clock an elegant supper was served, to which the guests did full justice. The graceful way in which George B. showed attentions to his guests was appreciated by all. He was greatly assisted in entertaining by his gentle and lovely cousin, Miss Montie Harris.

Mrs. Britt, the aged widow of P. C. W. Britt, died yesterday morning at her home near Hustonville, of this. She left three children, all of whom are married.

The Crab Orchard base ball club went over to Lancaster and got done up 30 to 15, but they told the Lancaster that they couldn't come to Crab Orchard and do so and so enough they didn't. On their own grounds the C. O. boys won just as easy 19 to 4 and they can keep on doing it.

The Lancaster Record came out yesterday and for the next two days will be a daily. This is a rapid stride for a town that hasn't been noted for supporting a weekly very well. But it is as much in the editor as in the people whether a paper succeeds or not. It takes enterprise and work from one year's end to another.

By an inexcusable oversight we failed to mention Hon. R. A. Lackey's loss in our last issue, though fully apprised of it. His barn was struck by lightning Thursday night and its contents, including two mules, burned up. Mr. Lackey seems to be especially unfortunate in this regard, as he has suffered several disastrous fires.

They are in earnest about the railroad in Asher. Gov. Hindman writes Mr. Vandever that a number of citizens have signed the contract to give the Cumberland railroad a free right-of-way through the county, besides the necessary grounds for depots and side tracks. About half of the way has been secured in Casey and the rest will soon be. The commissioners appointed by the county court to attend to that business in this county, Messrs. John O. Neal, T. P. Bright and W. E. Varnon, will proceed at once to secure the grants and expect to be through in a week or so. The iron seems to be hot now, do not let us fail to strike it and lose a golden opportunity.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. J. W. Lynch will preach at the Crab Orchard Springs next Sunday morning.

—The Kentucky State Sunday-school Convention will be held at Georgetown Tuesday, Aug. 26, to Thursday, Aug. 28 inclusive.

—I will preach at Mt. Moriah on the fourth Saturday and Sunday in July. I will preach old Brother John Ballard's funeral on Sunday, assisted by Bro. Long, Martin Owens.

—Bishop Granbery wants to engage an educated Methodist young lady, 22 to 25 years of age to teach art and music at the Methodist school in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Applicants can address Mr. D. H. McFarrell, Nashville, Tenn. Those who go must remain five years.

—Rev. Dr. Scarritt, who gave $25,000 to the Bible Training school, and died from exposure incurred while attending the recent Methodist General Conference, left a fortune of over $2,000,000, to be divided among six children, one of whom is the wife of Bishop Hendrix.

—The union meeting, held at the Presbyterian church at night because it has the largest auditorium, and at the other churches in the morning is progressing satisfactorily, though there have been no additions yet. In fact Evangelist Williams, who is conducting it, has made no direct effort in that direction yet, his sermons being principally devoted to preparing the membership for a gracious outpouring of the divine spirit. The speaker seems to be thoroughly consecrated to his work and his earnest and eloquent discourses are sure to bring forth happy results. The meetings will continue until further notice, and if an outside suggestion will be accepted, the night services will be changed from 8 to 7:30 o'clock. The days are very much shorter now and that hour will give everybody plenty of time to get there.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—J. E. Bruce bought of T. J. Hill a bunch of ewes at $3.95.

—C. M. Spoonmonie bought of J. M. Hall 100 ewes at $4 per head.

—For SALE.—300 stock ewes and 200 wethers. Givens & Carter, Moreland.

—J. M. Hall bought of D. N. Frewitt a nice lot of shoats weighing about 125 lbs. at 3 cents.

—A. A. Russell, of Milledgeville, sold to L. B. Fields, of Lexington, his Harry O'Fallon colt for $400.

—Shorn-meat hams and Poland China pigs for sale. Both thoroughbred and superior individuals. J. M. Van Meter, Danville.

—The Woodford Sun notes the sales of new wheat at 80 cents, a lot of 225-lb. hogs at 34 cents, and a large lot of extra sugar mules at $155 to $182.

—The Bourbon County Agricultural society will hold its annual fair Sept. 2 and the four following days. President Joseph M. Hall has our thanks for favors.

—One of the heaviest wagers ever laid was that of the Marquis of Hastings, who bet $500,000 on a single horse-race—and lost. The Marquis and his money soon parted.

—The Winchester Democrat reports sales of 100 mountain ewes at $3.60 to $3.75 a head, 100 do wethers at 34 cents, 115 fat wethers at 4; 1,000 lambs at 6 and 25 cattle of 1,750 to 1,800-pounds weight at 4.

—Ten shares of the Farmers National Bank stock were sold Monday for $181 per share, B. G. Boyle being the purchaser.

Mr. I. M. Quisenberry bought of Hood Worthington on Monday, 20 Southdown thoroughbred sheep at a shade below $10 per head.—Danville Advocate.

—A Chicago agricultural paper estimates the total yield of winter wheat this year in the United States at 272,344,436 bushels, but believes that the merchantable product of the crop will be considerably less, owing to bad conditions.

—Col. George O'Neal, representing the Clark County Fair Company, was here yesterday working up interest in the meeting which occurs Sept. 9-13, when $8,000 in premiums and purses will be given. The colonel is a hustler and the very man to represent that booming section.

—The Georgetown Times reports 125 cattle on sale court day. 23 head good medium cattle of 1,000 lbs. weight sold at $22.50 and 20 yearlings weighing 700 lbs. at $22.50. Calves at $7.50 to $11.50 per head. Only a few broke mules were offered and several sold at an average of $140. Fine horses brought from $60 to $100.
